PREFACE

The compiler of the present, the second, Volume of the Descriptive Catalogue of Government Collections of Mss., now entrusted for custody to the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, had the privilege of issuing the First Volume of the same Catalogue in 1916, when the Mss. were deposited at the Deccan College under his official charge. In the Foreword to that volume a detailed history of the search for Sanskrit Mss. in the Bombay Presidency was given, together with the origin and progress of the scheme of compilation of the present catalogue. That scheme there laid down has been followed in Volume XII, Volume XIV and Volume XVII, Parts I and II, since issued, and is likewise followed in the present Volume.

The Second Volume is to contain, according to the scheme, all Grammar Mss. in the Collections, Pāṇinīya as well as non-Pāṇinīya. In order to keep the size of the Volume within manageable limits the Mss. referring to the non-Pāṇinīya Systems of Grammar will be issued as Part II of Volume II. That Part is already in the hands of the printers.

The descriptive notes of a large number of Grammar Mss. assigned to Volume II were written by me more than 20 years ago. Where necessary they have been modified and brought up-to-date. This unfortunately was not always possible in the case of the " Referances " at the end of the descriptive notes, as I had to carry on the work from Benares, where references to Mss. Catalogues and printed editions of ancient and erudite works — and particularly to European publications bearing on the same — were not easily accessible. In the interest of speedy publication of the Volume it was not thought advisable to rectify all such minor deficiencies, for which the kind indulgence of scholars is solicited.

The Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute has made additions to the Original Government Collections of Mss., by making purchases on its own account. This added material, as far as works on Grammar were concerned, has been incorporated in the present publication.

Some twenty-five years ago while engaged on the study of these Grammar Mss. I was led to publish my small essay on the Systems of Sanskrit Grammar, which was my first serious publication bearing on Oriental Research. I wrote in the Preface to that brochure as follows :—

> "As the title indicates it is an essay — a mere tentative attempt — and not a profound treatise; and I have thought it worth while printing it merely because, as far as I know, no work of the kind, covering exactly the field of the essay, has so far appeared. In the 'Grundriss der Indo-arischen Philologie' there was to appear a work which would have made the writing of this essay superfluous, but apparently nothing has come out of it so far."

Written in the hope that it would soon be superseded by better works from abler hands, that booklet of 1915 has still remained the only independent work of its kind covering the specific field covered by it; nor has the Grundriss as yet published its promised volume on the subject. Contributions to elucidate various aspects of the history and evolution of Sanskrit grammatical systems have, however, been made by more than a dozen workers both in India and outside India; and above all there have been discoveries of large masses of Ms. material which would make many statements in my immature publication of a quarter of a century ago not only inadequate, but even inaccurate. A few of these I have found out for myself, while others have been pointed out by my obliging friends and inquiring readers, who have been all these years persistently urging me to undertake a second edition of the book now out of the market for some time. But I have so many unfinished undertakings on hand already, that I dare not promise that I shall undertake the revision after seeing the second part of this Volume through the Press.

I have to offer thanks to the Manager of the Aryabhushan Press, Poona, for his kind and patient co-operation while the work was in Press, and to Mr. G. N. Shrigondekar of the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute for looking up for me original Mss. and other works of reference to clear up small points of doubt while correcting the proofs at a distance from the Press.

RULES FOR THE Government Mss. Library

Regulations of the Manuscripts Department
(Bhandarkar Or. R. Institute)

1. "The Government Manuscripts Library" formed and maintained by the Government of Bombay, and formerly deposited at the Deccan College, Poona, is now, subject to the general control of the Department of Education, Bombay, placed under the direct charge of the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Poona.

2. The Department is administered by a Superintendent appointed by the Executive Board of the B. O. R. Institute subject to the approval of Government.

3. The Manuscripts are available at the Institute, during working hours, for purposes of bona fide study.

4. The Manuscripts in the Library, if in good condition, and subject to the requirements of the Department, are lent out to bona fide scholars on their applying for them in writing to the Superintendent of the Department or to the Secretary of the Institute. Such scholars shall, however, execute a bond for the value of the manuscripts required, this value being fixed by the officers in charge of the Library.

5. In the case of scholars from outside India, all requisitions for loans of manuscripts shall be made to the Secretary of State for India in Council, through whom also the transactions in manuscripts shall take place. Such scholars shall execute the necessary bond with the Secretary of State for India in Council, at his discretion.

6. In the case of scholars in India the execution of the bond shall be necessary before the manuscripts are lent out. When the applicant is not sufficiently known to the Superintendent of the Department, this latter officer shall have the power to call upon the applicant to produce a certificate as to his interest in the study of Sanskrit Literature, and of his being a fit person to be entrusted with Government manuscripts. Such a certificate shall have to be signed by Orientalists of recognised position, or by Government officers of the Provincial or other higher service, not below the rank of a Deputy Collector or Extra Assistant Commissioner. The certificate should contain a reference to works or essays published by the applicant.

N. B.—In the case of scholars residing within the jurisdiction of an Indian State, the certificate may be signed either by the Chief Sahib or the Divan or the Administrator of the State.

7. All applications for manuscripts shall state the reasons for which the manuscripts are required and the period for which the loan is sought.

8. If any manuscripts belonging to this Library have been used in the publication of an edition, or in any other learned disquisition, the authors should present to the Manuscripts Library a copy of the work or works so published.

9. The number of manuscripts to be lent out at a time to a scholar, and the period of loan, is determined by the officer in charge of the Library. Usually, however, in the case of Indian scholars, not more than five manuscripts are allowed to remain with them at a time, and the period of loan shall not normally exceed six months.

10. Immediately on receipt of manuscripts, the scholars are requested to examine them carefully before signing and returning the receipt-form accompanying the manuscripts, as no complaints will be entertained thereafter.

11. When the manuscripts are returned to the Library they are duly examined, and if found in their original condition, the receipt formerly signed for them is returned and the bond cancelled. The liability of the borrowers ceases only after the return of this receipt.

12. If scholars find that, owing to the work on the manuscripts not being completed within the stipulated period, they cannot return the manuscripts when due, they shall, sufficiently in advance, apply in writing to that effect to the Superintendent of the Department, or to the Secretary of State for India in Council, as the case may be. The period of loan will be extended at discretion. In no case, however, shall any manuscripts be allowed to remain with a scholar longer than two years in India, and five years outside India.

13. The Manuscripts Department reserves to itself the right of refusing to lend out any manuscript to any scholar at any time, and in the case of manuscripts lent out, of demanding their return before the expiry of the stipulated period, if the manuscripts be required for library or other purposes.

14. All postal charges shall be borne by the applicant.

15. The Department undertakes to procure on loan, for the members of the Institute, manuscripts from other lending Libraries.

LIST OF
PRINTED CATALOGUES AND REPORTS
ABOUT MANUSCRIPTS

The following is the list of works (Catalogues, Reports, etc.) already published embodying the results of the search and preservation of Sanskrit manuscripts in the Bombay Circle from 1866 to 1924. All lists published up to 1884 have been incorporated in our consolidated catalogue prepared by Mr. S. R. Bhandarkar, M.A., in 1888. The lists for the subsequent years are to be found embodied in the various Reports published thereafter. These Reports are of considerable value, inasmuch as they give in many cases the history of individual manuscripts, personal details of authors, their chronology, and such other items. All these works are therefore here put together in one place for ready reference.

Papers relating to the Collection and Preservation of the Reports of Ancient Sanskrit Literature, edited by order of Government of India, Calcutta, 1878, by Mr. E. A. Gough. This is a useful work for the general history of the Search during the earlier period upto 1878, and contains, among other things, lists of manuscripts bought for Government during the years 1868–69, 1869–70, 1870–71, 1871–72, 1872–73 and 1874–75. Vārttikapāṭha

No. 22 — 315 / 1875–76

Size — 13¾ in. by 6 in.

Extent — 33 leaves; 12 lines to a page; 48 letters to a line.

Description — Tough country paper, Devanāgarī characters of the Kāśmīrian type; bold and careful handwriting, fairly correct. The last leaf is wrongly numbered as the 34th. Complete in 8 adhyāyas of four pādas each. The Ms. comes from Kāśmīra.

Age — Comparatively modern looking.

Author — Kātyāyana.

Subject — The Ms. purports to give in a collected form the various Vārttikas which Kātyāyana wrote in emendation of Pāṇini's aphorisms. The Vārttikas are not the same as those given in Dr. Kielhorn's edition of the Mahābhāshya, many passages printed as Vārttikas in the edition being absent in the Ms., while portions which clearly belong to the text of Patañjali are presented as the dicta of Kātyāyana. In many cases however what is introduced in the Mahābhāshya by अपर आह &c. is also given here as a Vārttika of Kātyāyana himself, as also what appear to be direct emendations of Patañjali himself to the Sūtras of Pāṇini.

व्याकरणमहाभाष्यं प्रदीपसहितं

Vyākaraṇa-Mahābhāshya with Pradīpa

No. 44

227
1892-95

Size — 12½ in. by. 6½ in.

Extent — leaves 481 ; lines 12 to a page ; about 64 letters to a line.

Description — The Ms. seems to be put together by taking fragments from two separate Mss. written by two different hands on different sorts of paper. Both are written on country paper but the paper of the first part is thin and yellowish and the corners of many leaves are worm-eaten. This seems to be an older Ms. The other paper is thick and the handwriting more beautiful and legible than that of the former. The characters are Devanāgarī. The Ms. is correct on the whole ; but incomplete.

Foll. 1—86—To the end of प्रथमाध्यायस्य प्रथमपादे पंचममाह्निकं with fol. 39 missing. Then follows an independent paging :—

Foll. 44-108—These take up the Ms. where it was left and carry it on the end of प्रथमपाद्. The second pāda is missing altogether. A new paging and a hand similar to the first take up the Ms. from 3rd pāda Adhyāya I—

Foll. 1—82—and carry it on upto the end of first Adhyāya. Fol. 77 is double ; with a remark by a different hand that it is शोधपत्र to fol. 77.

Foll. 1-136—Another series of folio in the same hand brings the Ms. to the end of 2nd Adhyāya. Between fol. 62 and fol. 63 there is one unnumbered page with the remark by the same hand as above that it is शोधपत्र. The second writer having commenced the Ms. with the beginning of the 7th Adhyāya has carried it on with fresh paging, foll.

1–112, to the end of the 7th Adhyāya. Fol. 10 and foll. 54–61 are missing. Thus the Ms. is an incomplete patchwork.

Age — Not mentioned. A part of the Ms. appears considerably old.

Age — Not very old in appearance.

व्याकरणमहाभाष्यप्रदीप — Vyākaraṇamahābhāshya-Pradīpa

Size — 6½ in. by 9½ in.

Extent — 101 leaves; 20 lines to a page, 24 letters to a line.

No. 47 101 / 1881-82

Size — 11¾ in. by 4½ in.

Extent — 53 leaves, 11 lines to a page, 40 letters to a line.

Description — Old country paper much enbrowned and made brittle by age and exposure; Devanāgarī characters; clear, legible and generally correct. Gives the Pradīpa only, the Pratīkas being marked by red chalk. Sides of most leaves broken off all round. Contains the 1st pāda only of Adhyāya second.

व्याकरणमहाभाष्य प्रदीपोद्द्योतसहित Vyākaraṇa-Mahābhāshya with Pradīpa and Uddyota

No. 48 330 / A. 1881-82

Size — 13 in. by 6½ in.

Extent — 889 leaves, 10 to 15 lines to a page, 52 to 68 letters to a line.

Description — Tough country paper, Devanāgarī characters; bold and beautiful handwriting, fairly accurate. The Ms. seems to have been the work of two or three scribes who commenced their work simultaneously and at different points.

Consequently there has resulted much confusion in the numbering of pages, though the work is without any lacuna. Adhyāya first complete, comprising the following parts :—

I. 1. 1—foll. 1-41
I. 1. 2—foll. 1-63
I. 1. 3—foll. 105-147
I. I. 4—foll. 107-145 + foll. 2-14
I. 1. 5—foll. 15-76 with fol. 51 numbered twice. This आह्निक is also numbered from fol. 1 to 63.
I. 1. 6-8—foll. 213-399 with fol. 362 twice
I. 1. 9—foll. 387-481
I. 2—foll. 1-120 with fol. 98 twice
I. 3. 1 to I. 4. 2—foll. 1-128 with fol. 1 twice
I. 4. 3 to the end of Adhyāya I. Foll. 1-93, with foll. 47 and 74 twice, and foll. 19 and 20 numbered together.

Some of the leaves in the middle are worm-eaten and consequently cut off round the corner. The Bhāshya is given in the middle, the Pradīpa on both sides of the Bhāshya, the Uddyota being on the outermost sides, as is usual in such cases.

Age — Not very old in appearance.

Author — Of the Bhāshya—Patañjali ;

of the Pradīpa—Kaiyyaṭa ;

of the Uddyota—Nāgojībhaṭṭa.

Subject — Nāgojī's gloss on the well-known Pradīpa on the Vyākaraṇa-Mahābhāshya of Patañjali.

Begins — For beginnings and endings of Bhāshya and Pradīpa see the respective Mss. The Uddyota begins—

Extent — 75 leaves ; 11 lines to a page ; about 55 letters to a line.

Description — Country paper—a few leaves coloured yellow. Devanāgarī characters, bold and legible handwriting generally correct. The leaves are numbered consecutively upto 42, leaf 26 occurring twice. Leaf 42 is also marked leaf 1 and then follows consecutive paging upto 28 again, with an extra unnumbered leaf between the second and the third. At the end follow 5 leaves numbered 21–25. These last and the first 42 are written by a scribe different from that of the 28 leaves in the middle. On leaf 32 a we find the colophon — इति श्री-शिवभट्टसुतसतीगर्भजनागोजीभट्टकृते भाष्यप्रदीपोद्द्योते षष्ठस्य प्रथमे चतुर्थमाह्निकम् ।

L. 43 b, (i. e. of the second numbering) marks the close of the 5th आह्निक of the same. On l. 20 b, we find the end of 1st आह्निक of the 2nd पाद of 6th Adhyāya; and on l. 25 a, that of the 2nd आह्निक and the 2nd पाद also. It is not easy to determine whether the last 5 leaves follow up the text. The Ms. is extremely fragmentary, giving portions of Adhyāya VI.

Age — Does not look very old.

Begins—श्रीगणेशाय नमः। एकाचो द्विर्निर्देशस्य समानत्वादिती अनेन संदेही बीजं साधारणधर्मदर्शनमुक्तम्। ननु मयोरप्याश्रयणमस्त्वत आह॥

The main and perhaps the older part of the Ms. is written in a bold and legible hand, while a different and careless hand has supplied many intervening portions, as also occasional marginal notes in the other part itself. Even so patched up, the Ms. is not complete. It comprises the following parts :—

Adhyāyas 1 and 2 entirely absent ;

Adh. III. 1 to III. 2. 1 = foll. 1-77, followed by a short lacuna and then the next portion from III. 2. 2 to the end of the Adh. = foll. 1-33 ;

At the end of Adh. III we have the same date repeated, but now it is संवत् १६५४ समये माघवदि ५ ; and the handwriting is not uniform with the rest of the Ms., though it seems to be the same in which the marginal notes are written.

No. 60 — 283 / 1875-76

Size — 12½ in. by 10½ in.

Extent — 425 leaves, 20 lines to a page, 32 letters to a line.

Description — The Ms. is written on old looking birch barks very carefully preserved. All the leaves, except the first 60 and the last 3 or 4 are quite entire ; and even in the case of the damaged leaves it is the margins that have been broken off, the writing for the most part being left untouched. The edges of the Ms. have been secured by pasting long patches of tough country paper, and the whole Ms. is well bound up in leather. The character is Śāradā, and the writing is bold and quite legible. Dr. Bühler describes this Ms. as being "the most correct and the best written brich-bark Ms. in the whole collection and almost without a lacuna." Complete.

Age — Saṁvat 1707.

Author — The colophons of the first four adhyāyas mention Jayāditya as the author, while those of the last four, Vāmana.

Subject — A running commentary on the Sūtras of Pāṇini.

Begins —स्वस्त्यस्तु ॥ श्रीगणेशायनमः ॥ ॐनमो गुरवे ॥ स्वयंभ्वे ॥ ॐ नमः सरस्वत्यै ॥ ॐ नमः परमात्मने ॥ ॐ नमो ब्रह्मणे नमोनमः॥

After this follow a few lines of grammatical matter not relevant to the text. It seems to be the scribe's free exercise because he did not like to leave the least bit of the page blank.

Reference — The work has been printed by Pandit Bāla Śāstri Benares 1890. For the question of its authorship see Bühler's Report for 1875–76 pp. 72–73 and Dr. Bhandarkar's Report for 1883–84 p. 58. Consult also Liebich who has translated two chapters of the Vṛitti, Breslau 1892. A critical edition of the work is still a desideratum, in spite of good Ms. material available in the libraries of India and Europe.

काशिकावृत्ति — Kāśikāvṛitti

No. 61 — 7 / 1868–69

Size — 11 in. by 4¼ in.

The leaves are numbered continuously as well as separately for each adhyāya. The 8th adhyāya belongs to a different Ms. from the rest and has thus its own paging.

Age — Saṁvat 1543, of the first 7 Adhyāyas; and Saṁvat 1535, of the 8th Adhyāya.

Author — Vāmana. In this Ms. we nowhere find the mention of Jayāditya in the several colophons. The colophon generally at the end of each pāda is 'इति काशिकायां वृत्तौ प्रथमस्याध्यायस्य प्रथमः पादः' and so on. At the end of Adh. I, it is 'इति वामनकाशिकायां वृत्तौ etc.' (l. 77).

Ends, Adhyāya VIII — संवृतेन च सर्वगुणमात्रिकस्येव ग्रहणमिष्यते तेन सर्वगुणः प्रत्यापद्यत इति। This is followed by the two verses quoted above, इष्टुप० and व्याकरणस्य०। after which the usual colophon इति श्रीवामनविरचितायां etc, संवत् १५३५ वर्षे वैशाख वदि १ प्रतिपत्तिथौ अस्मिन् श्रीमदानंदपुरे म्लेच्छराज्ये भट्टश्रीप्पाचियाकस्य तनूजेन गंगदासाख्येन लिखिता चेयं काशिकावृत्तिः। भट्टश्रीरामचंद्राध्ययनार्थं स्वपठनाय च।

Description -- Old country paper, Devanāgarī characters; clear and legible writing fairly accurate. The Ms. is composed of two parts : the older one, of which about 50 pages survive, is on a darker looking and extremely fragile paper. The margins of this portion have been for the most part broken off. The bulk of the Ms. is a comparatively fresh addition. The work contains Adhyāyas IV to VIII complete, separately paged as under—

Adhyāya IV = foll. 1—64 fol. 18 twice ; Adhyāya V = foll. 1—60 ;	Adhyāya VI = foll. 1—84 ; Adhyāyas VII and VIII together = foll. 1—107 with fol. 69 missing.

Colophons — The Colophon everywhere is simply इति काशिकायां वृत्तौ• except VI. 1, VI. 2, VI. 3, VII. 4, and VIII. 4 where it is इति वामनकृतायां काशिकायां or simply वामनकाशिकायां. The Col. of VIII. 1 ought to have been on fol. 69 which is missing. It is generally the older portion which mentions the name वामन.

Reference — A complete Ms. of this work is yet a desideratum, although the Jaina maṭha at Srāvaṇa Belgola is said to contain a complete Ms. of the same written in ancient Kannaḍa characters on palm leaves, and another incomplete Ms. also on palm leaves but in Nāgaıa characters. (Cf. Catalogue of Sk. Mss. in Mysore and Coorg by Rice, p. 307.) The six Mss., we have, give us a complete text for Adhyāyas 1, 2, 4 and 5, and a nearly complete one for Adhyāya 7. The remaining Adhyāyas are wanting. The I. O. Ms. No. 603 gives a few sūtras of Adhyāya VIII, pāda 4. The Gov. Or. Mss. Library Madras (No. 1323, of the Descriptive Catalogue, Vol. III) contains the 4th pāda of Adhyāya VI. R. Mitra in his Notices, Vol. VI, No. 2075, reports of the existence of another which extends continuously from Adhyāya II to VII. 2 complete; while No. 2076 is a commentary called तन्त्रप्रदीप by महामहोपाध्यायमैत्रेयरक्षित, extending from I. 2 to the end of the 8th Adhyāya. Thus there is sufficient Ms. material for a complete edition of this work. Postscript : A complete edition of the Nyāsa has been brought out (1913—1925) by Srish Chandra Chakravarti by collating 26 Mss., including some of those mentioned above.

Extent — 48 leaves, 14 to 16 lines to a page; 52 letters to a line.

Description — Old country paper, Śāradā characters; bold and legible writing usually correct. Margins of some leaves worm-eaten and torn. The Ms. is fragmentary, being made up of the following portions :—

Foll. 51 to 58—beginning a little before I. 1. 72 and reaching down a little beyond I. 2. 17;

Foll. 137 to 144—from the beginning of Adh. II to a little beyond II. 1. 30;

Foll. 146 to 161—from II. 1. 37 to the end of II. 2 and a few lines of II. 3;

Foll. 190 to 200—from a little before II. 4. 81 to IV. 1. 9. The 3rd Adhyāya however is almost entirely wanting, and we find a note of the scribe to the effect that the original from which our Ms. was copied entirely lacked the 3rd Adhyāya.

Age — Much old in appearance.

Colophons — Only four colophons occur in this Ms. The first is on fol. 43*a* and runs thus :—

इति श्री स्थविरजिनेंद्रविरचितायां न्यासपंजिकायां प्रथमस्याध्यायस्य प्रथमः पादः समाप्तः ॥ श्लोकाः २९०० ॥

The Second is on fol. 153*b*: स्थविरजिनेंद्रबुद्धिविरचितायां न्यासपंजिकायां द्वितीयस्याध्यायस्य प्रथमः पादः ॥

The next one comes on fol. 161*b* which runs in the same manner. The last occurs on fol. 191, at the conclusion of Adhyāya II, and it is—

इति स्थविरजिनेंद्रबुध्युपरचितायां न्यासपंजिकायां द्वितीयोध्यायः समाप्तः ॥ followed by two lines of Ad. III ॐ नमो गणेशाय ॥ प्रत्ययः ॥ &c., at the end of which we have the scribe's remark :— तृतीयाध्यायः प्रतिस्था(?)पकमादत्ता(?)भावान्न लिखितम् ॥

शब्दकौस्तुभ — Śabdakaustubha

No. 77 — 223 / 1892-95

Size and Extent — The work is made up of three different fragments, of varying sizes:

(i) $10\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $4\frac{1}{2}$ in.; leaves 244, 10 lines, 30 letters;
(ii) $10\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 5 in.; leaves 31, 15 lines, 48 letters;
(iii) $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 5 in.; leaves 41, 12 lines, 30 letters.
Thus the total No. of leaves is 316.

Description — Country paper partly old and thick, partly new and thin; Devanāgarī characters. Three different hands all bold and legible; generally correct, and complete to the end of Adhyāya I, Pāda 1. The 1st fragment carries it on to the end of the 7th आह्निक of the first पाद of first अध्याय and a few lines more of the next आह्निक. Of these again the 1st आह्निक has a paging separate from that of the following six. The remaining 2 आह्निकs are given, one each, by the two other fragments.

Age — Cannot be ascertained. Part of the two books considerably old.

Author — भट्टोजी दीक्षित, the well-known author of Siddhāntakaumudī.

Subject — A running commentary on Pāṇini's Sūtras, being mainly a collection of the critical expositions of Pāṇini's aphorisms contained in Patañjali's Mahābhāshya. The author is supposed to have carried this work only upto the end of the 1st पाद् of 1st Adhyāya. However the Madras Catalogue, Vol. III, No. 1328, contains Āhnikas 1 to 4 of Adhyāya III and a part of the 5th, and No. 1331 contains the 1st pāda of Adhyāya III, whence there is reason to assume that the work may have existed in a complete state. If it was left incomplete, it certainly went upto the 3rd Adhyāya.

The next two Āhnikas, also paged separately, (VIII = foll. 1-26 with a supplementary bit at fol. 4*a*; and IX = foll·

Age — Saṁvat 1507.

Author — Vimalasarasvati.

Subject — An elementary Sanskrit grammar in Sūtras, extracted from the Ashṭādhyāyī, followed by short explanations. The order of treatment is topical, like that of the Siddhānta-kaumudī, although this seems to be an earlier recast of Pāṇini than the Kaumudī, in that Vimalasarasvati is quoted by Bhaṭṭojī in the Praudhamanoramā (Vide Oxf. 162 b) The various sections are as follows :

रूपावतार Rūpāvatāra

No. 89 308
1875–76

Size — 6 in. by 7½ in.

Extent — 263 leaves, 15 lines to a page, 18 letters to a line.

Description — Bhūrja leaves much worn-out and tattered, but pasted by paper slips at the edges. Śāradā Characters. Bold and generally legible handwriting; correct. Several leaves in the beginning and at the end missing. The Ms. is bound in leather along with No. 275 and No. 311 of the same Collection, and is in a good state of preservation. The original pagination is visible in the majority of pages but has been torn off in the case of others, which renders the continuity of the text difficult to ascertain. The earliest numbered leaf is 25, before which there are fragments of 10 leaves. The last numbered folio is 380, but several intervening leaves are missing. The विसर्जनीयसंधि ends on the first extant leaf. The last extant leaf carries the text well towards the end of the कृत्प्रकरण, the Sūtra त्यपि लघुपूर्वात् (VI. 4. 40) occurring towards the bottom of its unnumbered side, and कर्मण्याक्रोशे (III. 4. 23) in the last line of the numbered side.

Age — The Ms. appears to be fairly old.

Author — Not given. The work is generally attributed to Dharmakīrti.

Subject — A recast of the grammatical sūtras of Pāṇini — perhaps the earliest one attempted — after which the Prakriyā and the Siddhānta Kaumudīs came to be modelled. The Sūtras are followed by the author's own running and illustrative commentary.

Reference — The work has been edited by M. Raṅgāchārya in two volumes, Madras, the second volume appearing in 1927 as a posthumous publication. Since however the editor freely added and amended the text "for the use of College students" it is no wonder that the printed text differs largely from the Ms. almost on every page. For other Mss. see Descriptive Catalogue of Madras Oriental Library Mss., Vol. III, Nos. 1332ff.

रूपावतारटीका Rūpāvatāraṭīkā

No. 90 $\frac{43}{1919\text{–}24}$

Extent — About 116 plus 6 leaves, 10–12 lines to a page, 90–100 letters to a line.

Description — Tough palm leaves, very much worm eaten and several of them broken to pieces; Malayālam characters. The leaves are not numbered and seem to have got mixed up. Fragile and fragmentary. Written by means of a stylus and rubbed over with lamp-black except towards the end. The Ms. contains at least 2 if not 3 works: (a) रूपावतारटीका, (b) वाक्यपदीय (stray leaves), (c) further stray leaves, (d) रूपावतारटीका, (e) धातुप्रत्ययपञ्जिकाटीका.

Age — Very old in appearance.

Author — Not given. The name of the author of the original, viz. धर्मकीर्ति, is given on fol. 1.

Prakriyākaumudiprasāda

No. 102

30
1868-69

Size — 11½ in. by 5¼ in.

Extent — 306 leaves; 10 lines in a page, about 48 letters in a line.

Description — Foreign paper, Devanāgarī characters. Very old appearance. Bold and legible writing, fairly correct; margins very nicely marked. The borders of many leaves rather worn out. Complete to the end of the Taddhita-prakaraṇa.

Age — Saṁvat 1641.

Author — Viṭṭhalāchārya, son of Nṛisiṁha and Māṇikāmbā, grandson of Rāmchandra, great-grandson of Kṛishṇa, who is himself the grandson of Ananta.

Subject — A commentary called Prasāda, most probably on account of its perspicuity of style, on the Prakriyākaumudī of Rāmachandrāchārya, the grandfather of the author of the commentary. The Prasāda is a very learned work as appears from the numerous citations therein from earlier works, such as, the Indumatīvṛitti, Kātantra, Kshīrataraṅgiṇī of Kshīrasvāmi, Nyāsa, Kāśikā, Harikārikā, Vichārachintāmaṇi, Mugdhabodha, and many others.

This last verse occurs at the end of each section with corresponding changes. As appears from the verses above, the author ascribing to Rāmachandra a work named Vaishṇavamahāsiddhānta-saddīpikā and three works dealing with Kālanirṇaya. So also on leaf 3, we have, 'तथा च नृसिंहाचार्यवर्यैश्च कालनिर्णयदीपिकाविवृतौ तथोक्तं रामचन्द्राचार्यसूनुभिः' Thus it appears that Nṛisiṁhāchārya wrote a commentary on his father's कालनिर्णयदीपिका.

No. 305 46 / 1868–69

Size — 12¾ in. by 8 in.

Extent — 49 leaves, 16 lines in a page, about 48 letters in a line.

Description—Foreign paper, very neat, bold and beautiful writing; fairly correct, complete. The text of the Paribhāshās is written in the middle of each page.

Age — A new copy.

Author — Śīradeva.

Subject — A commentary on the Paribhāshās, or general rules of interpretation and application in connection with Pāṇini's grammar. The Paribhāshās commented upon are 130 in number and differ a good deal in point of their order and, sometimes, of their text, from those treated by Nāgojibhaṭṭa Paribhāshās 1—102 are divided into 27 pādas, with different names, which are as follow :—

प्रथमपाद—	परिभाषास	1–13
कुटादि पाद—	,,	14–16
भूपाद—	,,	17–19
कारकपाद—	,,	20–27
समर्थपाद—	,,	28–29
अपरपाद—	,,	30–32
अनभिहितपाद—	,,	33
द्विगुपाद—	,,	34–35

After this 5 Paribhāshās are wanting. (The same is the case with the Ms. in the India Office Library, No. 672)

कर्मणिपाद—	परिभाषास	41–45
बहलपाद—	,,	46
संबंधपाद—	,,	47–48
व्याप्पाद—	,,	49–52
रक्तपाद—	,,	53–55
युष्मान्पाद—	,,	56
ठक्पाद—	,,	57
धान्यपाद—	,,	58–60
शतपाद—	,,	61
एकाचपाद—	,,	62–64
बहुव्रीहिपाद—	,,	65–66
अङ्गपाद—	,,	67–77
युवपाद—	,,	78–83

देविकापाद—	,,	90–95
णीपाद—	,,	96–99
सर्वस्यद्वेपाद—	,,	100
रेफपाद—	,,	101–102

Then follow the Nyāyamūla-paribhāshās. The order of the परिभाषास corresponds to that of Pāṇini's Sūtras.

Begins — स्फुरदभिनवरागा भास्कराभा प्रगल्भा
प्रसभशमितदोषा स्फीतसल्लोकचक्रा ।
